

THE CHURCH GREEN WINE LIST

We've taken as much care in selecting our wines as we would in selecting produce and ingredients for the kitchen. Wine will always form an integral part of any meal, however wine also needs to know its place and that place is to enhance the dish it accompanies. Wine should help release flavours and instigate a taste sensation that is heightened by the combination of good food and quality wine. The Wine List at The Church Green has been selected to specifically achieve that goal. We see too many wines in too many restaurants that simply overpower the dishes that they are intended to compliment. That will not be the case here. We have shipped our wines directly from the producers or their UK agents. By doing so, we hope to offer the highest possible quality.
